

Basic Pump Operation and Maintenance Class

Description: This four session “Operator Orientated” Class will cover language and key operating criteria components and maintaining to manufacturer’s specifications, Proper alignment methods and coupling types and correct installation and troubleshooting problems that occur.

About the Instructor: Bill Berger has 40 years of operating engineer experience and holds many advisory positions. He is also involved in instructor training for the State Department of Education, is a part-time instructor for the University of St.Thomas and is a published author. Bill is currently a Local 70 member and works at the Minneapolis Public Housing Agency.

Tools to bring: socket set, or wrench set, Dial Indicator if you have one. If possible bring pump parts couplers, gaskets, seals or other items you may have questions.

Dates / Times: This class will be held on Mondays from 5:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. on the following dates:

- To Be Determined

Location: Classes will be held at the Local 70 classroom, located at: 2417 Larpenteur Avenue West; in Lauderdale. Located one block east of Hwy. 280 & Larpenteur Avenue exit, on the corner of Larpenteur Avenue & Eustis Street.

Cost: Tuition for the class $150.00 for International Union of Operating Engineers members and $200.00 for non-members.

How to Register: Registration is with your payment. Registration deadline is To Be Determined. Class size is limited; please register early. For registration call: 651-646-4566

Tuition Reimbursement: Check with your employer for possible tuition reimbursement.

Minimum of eight paid registrations by deadline

Mail payment to:
International Union of Operating Engineers, Local 70
2417 Larpenteur Avenue West
St. Paul, Minnesota 55113